

Jessica Judd

Musical Theater

Jessica Judd has been dancing for 17 years, and is a beloved alumni of Cary Dance Productions. Jessica was a member of the CDP Competitive Company for eight years, competing in all genres of dance. During this time, Jessica worked as an assistant teacher, and eventually progressed to working as a CDP staff member. In the summer of 2013, Jessica was accepted into the Broadway Dance Center summer internship program. This experience allowed her to work with some of the best dancers and teachers in the business, including choreographers from Fox's hit show, So You Think You Can Dance. Jessica was also given the opportunity to work with The Pulse on their summer tour - featuring teachers and choreographers such as Dave Scott, Mia Michaels, Brian Freedman, and many more. Jessica has been an active and influential member of the ECU dance team for the past four years, introducing and choreographing their first contemporary routine.

Upon graduation, Jessica is excited to begin her professional dance career, exploring the dance industry from New York City to Los Angeles. It is her dream to teach, inspire, and always leave her mark on the dance floor!

Jessica McMillan

Contemporary

Jessica McMillan is an active member of the Cary Dance Productions staff, and the founder of the IHIH Dance Convention. Her passion lies in nurturing inspiration in those around her, encouraging self exploration, and creating innovative movement. Through this program, many of her students have continued to dance, choreograph, and teach master classes of their own. She is thrilled to celebrate the 5th anniversary of this program, and excited for the future ahead of her students and the IHIH staff.

2016

IN HOUSE IN HOUSE:

Several of our Senior Company members were selected for the unique opportunity to teach and host their very own convention here at CDP. These students have been participating in a program of intense study over several months with Ms. Jessica -- focusing strictly on developing skills as a dance teacher and choreographer. This program is meant to give our students an opportunity to explore different venues of continuing dance as a career, to challenge our dancers artistically, and to further harvest creativity and growth within our studio as individuals, and as a team. Many of our past IHIH instructors have gone on to teach master classes and choreograph for studios around the state. We are honored to be celebrating the 5th anniversary of this event!

Dancers attending will take FIVE different dance classes, from our CDP staff and Master Class Instructors, Jessica Judd and Jessica McMillan! This convention is perfect opportunity to learn, perform, and perfect your audition skills (attending dancers will have the opportunity to receive scholarships to next year's convention and more)! You don't want to miss this event!

May 22nd - 1:30pm-6:30pm

Cost $60 — This Fee Includes:

FIVE dance classes (including class with master teachers Jessica Judd and Jessica McMillan)

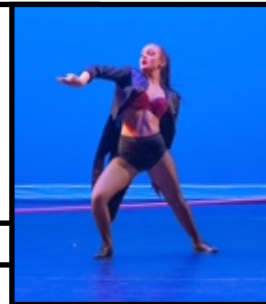

IHIH Apparel (each dancer will receive an exclusive 2016 IHIH tank)

SCHOLARSHIP Opportunity: Scholarships to future event will be awarded to outstanding performers

Kaity Ellis - Contemporary

Kaity has been dancing since she could stand, teaching herself the choreography from her favorite childhood show, Barney and Friends. She is currently on the GHHS dance team, a 3rd year member of the CDP Senior Company, and a performer for Elevate Performance Company. After high school she plans to attend a university, majoring in dance performance. Her dream is to continue dancing the rest of her life, and start auditioning as soon as she can - Hopefully in NYC or LA!

Michaela Anglin - Jazz

Michaela has been dancing at CDP since she was 3 years old, and has been a member of the competitive Company since 2007. She is currently on the GHHS dance team and a teacher at CDP! After graduating high school she hopes to join a college dance team, and to continue dance the rest of her life. Michaela has both attended and assisted the In House In House Conventions in years past, and is so excited to be teaching her own classes this year! She is looking forward to encouraging and inspiring a love of dance in her students!

Cara McMahon - Hip Hop

Cara has been dancing since she was two years old, and has been a member of the CDP Company for 10 years now. She has been a dancer on the Panther Creek High School Dance Team for 3 years, a dancer on the PCHS Dance Company for 2 years, and is currently the president of the PCHS dance club. Cara is a member of the CDP staff, working as a teacher assistant for the past five years. She will be graduating from high school this summer and plans to continue her dance education in college. One day Cara hopes to open her own dance studio!
