What is RCC?

At Cary Dance Productions, we offer a unique opportunity for dancers who have a strong work ethic, are committed to their dance education, and love to perform.

Our Recreational Competitive Company strikes a balance between weekly recreational classes and our competitive level teams — a smaller time and financial commitment with the same amount of heart.

In addition to class attendance requirements, RCC dancers occasionally have rehearsals on the weekend, and are required to participate in several additional performances. These performances include the Cary and Apex Christmas Parades, our winter benefit show CREATE, one local dance competition, and our end of year Spring Recital.

We currently have three different RCC teams at our studio:

Junior RCC (for dancers ages 10-12)

Teen RCC (for dancers ages 13-14)

Senior RCC (for dancers ages 15+)

Dancers are eligible for the RCC program by audition only.

RCC dancers will be enrolled in specific RCC classes during the 2018-2019 fall session.

Although RCC dancers are occasionally required to attend rehearsals outside of class, RCC competition routines will be rehearsed primarily during these weekly dance classes.

Class Requirements.

All RCC dancers will be required to enroll in RCC Ballet and Jazz classes during the 2018-2019 season. All other dance forms are optional. Optional dance forms include, Lyrical, Musical Theater, Hip Hop, Tap, Contemporary, Acro, and Pointe. Ballet, Acro, and Pointe dances will perform at recital only.

Competition.

RCC Competition routines will be rehearsed in weekly dance classes. All RCC dancers will attend one local dance competition with our competitive company dancers.

CREATE.

RCC dancers will be required to perform in our annual winter show hosted by our competitive company. A portion of the show's proceeds are donated to local non-profit, The Caring Place.

Christmas Parades.

All RCC members are required to participate in the Cary and Apex Christmas Parades! The CDP Sugarplums are a crowd favorite!

RCC AUDITIONS Friday, May 18th

Why CDP RCC?

#WorkhardPlayhard. The CDP Recreational Competitive Company is an opportunity for your child to grow as an artist and athlete. It is a privilege for those excited and willing to commit to a deeper knowledge of the arts, technique, and performance. It is a family of dancers taking their dance experience to another level.

As a staff, we are dedicated to empowering our dancers as unique individuals, and cultivating a supportive environment to learn and grow.
